

OHIO UNIVERSITY APPLIED LINGUISTICS MA PROGRAM

About Us

Founded in 1970, the Department of Linguistics at Ohio University offers a Master of Arts degree in Applied Linguistics with a Technology-Enhanced Language Teaching Certificate (TELT) option. The degree requires four regular semesters of graduate study and prepares students for doctoral studies and professional careers in wide areas of applied Linguistics.

Program Description

The dynamic two-year M.A. in Applied Linguistics with a Technology-Enhanced Language Teaching Certificate (TELT) option provides students with a strong theoretical foundation in applied linguistics as well as practical training in teaching English and other languages to second and foreign language learners and prepares them for doctoral studies and professional careers in related disciplines.

Curriculum

Required:

LING 5510* Technology-Enhanced Language Teaching I
 LING 5760 Second Language Acquisition
 LING 5800 Methods & Materials in TESOL
 LING 5870 Research Methods in Applied Linguistics
 LING 5920/*5921 Practicum
 LING 6610 Teaching L2 Speaking and Listening
 LING 6710 Grammar in Use
 LING 6850 Teaching L2 Reading & Writing
 LING 6970 Professional Portfolio Seminar

Electives:

LING 5520* Technology-Enhanced Language Teaching II
 LING 5701 Grammar and Syntax
 LING 5780 Psycholinguistics
 LING 5830 Assessing Language Abilities
 LING 5860 Semantics and Pragmatics
 LING 5901 Sociolinguistics and Bilingualism
 LING 6950 Thesis

* = Requirements for the TELT Certificate.

Focus on your passion!

Applied Linguistics M.A. students are encouraged to pursue their own areas of interest by working closely with their professors.

Special Opportunities:

- TEFL (Teaching English as a Foreign Language) Certificate
- TELT (Technology-Enhanced Language Teaching) Certificate
- TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) Endorsement

Why choose OHIO?

- Graduates become successful academic researchers and language educators
- Research experiences with caring and knowledgeable professors
- Innovative materials production with talented ESL specialists (e.g., international online projects)
- Balanced emphasis of theory and practice
- Supervised internship opportunities at local schools
- Funding and scholarships available for qualified applicants

AND...

- A fulfilling student life on one of the most beautiful college campuses in America!

Questions? Contact Hiroyuki Oshita, Ph.D.
 Graduate Chair, Linguistics
 ✉ oshita@ohio.edu

Applications are now being accepted for Fall 2023 admission

*Early applicants receive priority funding consideration.
 International applicants requiring a visa are advised to apply by mid-March.*

For more information, visit www.ohio.edu/cas/linguistics/