Questions 31~35

Dear Mr. Yeoh,

I was sorry to hear that your stay at our Portland, Oregon hotel was less than satisfactory. I agree that you should not have had your seminars there exposed to the noise from work crews renovating our lobby and main entrance. I understand that at many points your presenters struggled to be heard because of that.

Unfortunately, when taking your reservation for the Premier Gold Room, our receptionist made a mistake by overlooking the fact it was adjacent to the areas under renovation. We were particularly embarrassed because as a Sunshine Hotels Card member, you are entitled to top-class service.

To make up for all that in some small way, I hope that you will accept the voucher enclosed.

Moreover, I hope your experience will not stop you from visiting us again. Please accept my assurances this was an isolated incident. In a recent survey carried out by our staff, 96% of our guests completed signed forms stating they were very pleased with our service.

Sincerely,
Vice President
